Two Hundred and Thirty-Eight Will Contest For Nominations at Primary Election May 2

TIME FOR FILING IS CLOSE

Contests For Assessor and Trustee on Both Tickets in Most Townships—Full Tickets

Two hundred and thirty-eight candidates were on their toes today in the race for nominations which will be served up by the voters of the republican and democratic parties in Rush county at the primary election to be held Tuesday, May 2.

Every candidate knows what to expect now in the way of opposition because the time for candidates to file their declarations closed Saturday evening.

There are 129 republican candidates and 109 democrats seeking the nominations for township and county offices. These include candidates for precinct committeemen, but not for delegates to the state convention, who have until April 12 to file their declarations.

Of the 109 democrats, sixteen are after county offices and ninety-three want township offices, including precinct committeemen. Twenty-three republicans seek county nominations and the remaining 106 are for township offices and precinct committeemen.

The republicans have candidates for every office to be filled in the fall election, with the single exception of justice of the peace and constable. Each township is entitled to one or more justices and constables and there are candidates only in Rushville township.

The democratic ticket is complete with the exception of justices and a few precinct committeemen.

The race for assessor on both tickets is hotly contested in most townships this year, indicating that the farmers' associations are taking an active interest in the question of taxation. Contests for trustee are common to most of the townships also.

A complete list of all candidates is as follows:

CLAIM OF $16,500 IS PENDING

One of the biggest farm auction sales ever held in Rush county will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when the Irma Mitchell estate, consisting of 192 acres, will be sold to the highest bidder. The estate has been subdivided into three tracts, one of 59 acres, 53 acres and 80 acres.

The sale was ordered by the court, and John A. Tittsworth and C. W. Duncan were appointed commissioners. The land is located on the Orange pike, 4 miles southeast of Rushville, and is a valuable farm, containing one of the best native timber tracts in the county, as well as being of good soil and tillage.

The deceased did not leave any near relatives, excepting cousins, and a claim amounting to $16,500 is now pending against the estate, as filed by Mrs. Blanche Wilson, with whom the deceased had made her home.

It is expected that the farm auction of the state, and the sale will begin promptly at 2 o'clock.

The fine and costs in the case amounted to $133.67 for each man. The jury which heard their case assessed the fine at that amount after they had stood trial on a grand jury indictment charging them with the unlawful possession of whiskey, following their arrest at Glenwood over a week ago.

Ellsbury, who is a resident of Wayne county, will be given a day or so additional time in which to make the payment or secure someone to stay his fine, and in case he cannot meet the requirements, he will be taken to the State Penal farm to "lay out" his fine for 133 days.

APPEAL MADE FOR RUSSIAN RELIEF

Letters Received By Rush County
People Asking for Aid For Starving In Volga Valley

15 DOLLARS SAVES A LIFE

Administration Expenses Are Paid
By Quakers Who Have Endorsement of Herbert Hoover

Many Rush county people have received circular letters addressed to "Citizens of Rush county", from the Rush county committee of the Indiana Russian Famine Fund, appealing for cash contributions to help save the fifteen million adults and children in the Volga river valleys of Russian who are dying of starvation. The fund raised in Indiana is being distributed through the American Friends (Quakers) service committee which is co-operating with the American Relief Administration.

The Rush county committee is composed of Will P. Jay, chairman, Samuel L. Trabue, Ernest B. Thomas and Robert E. Mansfield, each of whom signed the appeal.

The American Quakers were on the job in Russia before the American Relief Administration went in, it is explained. When Herbert Hoover found the Friends distributing relief in one section, he agreed not to disturb their organization, with the result that his organization is not interfering with their work in the least, and there is no duplication of effort.

The appeal is for a gift of $15, which will save the life of a child, but contributors may send any sum above that amount they wish to give. All expenses in connection with the distribution of the relief are paid by the Quakers and the relief workers are unpaid volunteers.

There are now in this district in which the Friends committee is operating, 252,100 children under fourteen years of age, practically all of whom are doomed to die except for food, medicine and clothing made available to them by American money.

Herbert Hoover has estimated that it will require one dollar per month per capita from now until the next harvest in August to feed the starving children and peasants in the famine district in the Volga River basin in Russia. To provide the medicines and clothing necessary to save the life of the children who are so weakened by under-nourishment that the resistance to disease is all but gone, an additional $9 will be needed so that every $15 contributed to the Indiana Russian Famine Fund, 909-910 Lemecke Building, Indianapolis, will save the life of a child.

TRANSFERS PROPERTY TO DEFRAUD CREDITORS

Allegation of Complaint Filed by John Kelly, Jr., Against Russell
Behout Today

HAS JUDGMENT FOR $200

John Kelley, Jr., is plaintiff in a suit filed today in the circuit court against Russell L. Behout, et al., the complaint being to set aside a deed. The plaintiff alleges that in December, 1921 the defendant transferred property in Maple street to his daughter, Mrs. Eulalia Wagoner, and her husband, William Wagoner, for the purpose of defrauding his creditors.

The plaintiff alleges that the defendant owes him over $200, which was judgment rendered in a civil suit filed in the court here recently, and that he does not now own property with which the judgment can be satisfied, and the court is asked to set aside the deed, so that the plaintiff can collect.

There was no court today on account of the absence of Judge Sparks who was serving as a special judge in a case at Connersville, and which will not end until probably Tuesday night.

BOARD ENDORSES THE CENTENNIAL

County Commissioners Adopt Resolution Commending Efforts of County Centennial Committee

FIRST BOARD MET APR. 1, 1922

Tuesday Will be Hundredth Anniversary of Meeting of The First
Court in The County

A resolution endorsing the work of the Rush County Centennial Committee in making preparations to celebrate the one-hundredth anniversary of the birth of Rush county June 14 and 15, was adopted by the Rush county board of commissioners today.

The civil activities of the county were set in motion one hundred years ago last Saturday when the first board of commissioners met at the home of Jehu Perkins south of Rushville, in accordance with an act of the legislature, approved December 31, 1821, creating the county of Rush.

The first act of the commissioners was to divide the county into six townships—Union, Ripley, Noble, Washington, Richland and Orange. As the county increased in population, seven townships were added from time to time until 1830 as follows: Green, February 12, 1823; Rushville, August 11, 1823; Walker, March 6, 1826; Center, January 4, 1830; Jackson, August 18, 1830; Anderson November 9, 1830; and Posey. The county retained the townships in this form until March 8, 1859 when the commissioners re-modeled the townships and decreased their number to twelve, evidently being superstitious of the number thirteen. Green township was the one dropped.

The resolution adopted by the commissioners today reads as follows:

WHEREAS, on April 1, 1882 the first Board of Commissioners of Rush County met at the home of Jehu Perkins and organized the County and thereupon set in motion the civil activities of a new unit of government, and

WHEREAS, it is proposed to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the County on June 14th and 15th, 1922 and thereby evidence a debt of gratitude that is due to our pioneer forefathers and to rejoice in the prosperity that has attended the citizens of the County for the past century, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the Commissioners of Rush County in regular session assembled, endorse the action of the Rush County Centennial Committee in their efforts to hold an observance that is worthy of an event of such importance and we call upon the people of Rush County to pay a tribute of gratitude to the Founders of the County and to hold in sacred remembrance their works.

Tuesday will be the hundredth anniversary of the organization of the first court in Rush county and it is expected that the event will be formally recognized in the circuit court. The first court met at the home of Stephen Simms, which was an 80-acre farm lying west of what is now known as the New Salem pike and across Flatrock river south of Rushville.

William W. Wick, judge of the fifth circuit, was presiding judge and Elias Poston and North Parker were associates. Robert Thompson was clerk of the court by virtue of a commission from Governor Jennings, and at the first session he presented a crude seal which was adopted as the seal of the county.

The morning session adjourned to meet at 2 p. m. at the home of Jehu Perkins and at the afternoon session Hiram M. Curry, who was admitted to the bar as the first attorney, was appointed prosecuting attorney and immediately sworn into office.

John Hays, who was the first sheriff, reported the panel of grand jurors and the grand jury, after a brief session, reported to the court

BROTHER OF A. T. MAHIN DIES SUNDAY

The Rev. Charles W. Mahin, Formerly of This City, Expires at Greensburg, Kansas of Cancer

TRUSTEE HERE MANY YEARS

A. T. Mahin received word early Sunday morning of the death of his brother, the Rev. Charles W. Mahin, formerly of this city, who has been a resident of Greensburg, Kas., for several years, being in the ministry of the Christian church of that city.

The Rev. Mr. Mahin was about 50 years old, and moved from here 18 or 20 years ago, going to Angola, where he studied ministry and took up his new vocation. While here he was an attorney, and was trustee of Rushville township for several years. After entering the ministry, he was an evangelist, but in recent years had a charge in Greensburg, Kas., where he died. Mr. Mahin was a cripple and used a wheel chair.

He was taken ill on March 8, and cancer of the stomach was the cause of his death. He was a member of the local order of Red Men. A widow, an adopted son, three sisters and two brothers survive.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahin of this city left Sunday for Greensburg, where they will attend the funeral which will be held Wednesday afternoon, with interment in that city.

REAL STRENGTH OF STRIKE DETERMINED

Operators Say Many Miners Took Holiday Over Sunday and Returned to Work Today

RAIL UNIONS DISCUSS AID

(By United Press)

The real strength of the nationwide coal tie-up was being determined today.

John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers in Washington declared the walkout was 100 percent effective.

Operators, however, said that many miners simply took a holiday over Saturday and Sunday and were returning to work today.

Lewis, before the House labor committee suggested nationalization of the mines as a way out of the repeated coal troubles. He emphasized miners were ready to meet operators. In the Pennsylvania anthracite coal districts railroad shops were closed because of the strike and a total of 3,000 men laid off. Anthracite operators and miners resumed wage negotiations in New York.

In Chicago heads of railroad unions discussed aiding the miners.

Charleston, W. Va., April 3.—The first disturbance in the West Virginia field since the nation wide mine strike began was reported to the state police here today.

DEPLORES APATHY IN CHURCH CIRCLES

Dr. L. W. Munhall Begins Revival
Here Sunday With Sermon on
"Revive Thy Work, O Lord"

SERVICES AT M. E. CHURCH

Evangelist Declares Child of God is Never Justified in Turning His Back on The Loving Lord

The revival meetings at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church had a fine beginning Sunday when two large congregations gathered morning and evening to hear the noted evangelist, Dr. L. W. Munhall, in the opening messages of the campaign. Dr. Munhall expressed his great pleasure at being back in Rushville for his third revival campaign and expressed the hope that this might be the best of the three.

"Revive Thy Work, O Lord" was the text of the morning sermon in which the evangelist deplored the apathy, indifference and lukewarmness so manifest in church circles today. The individual as well as the church needs to be toned up ever so often, said the preacher. Dr. Munhall made a stirring appeal for loyalty to high standards, and deplored the tendency of the day to compromise with the world.

"Backsliders and Backsliding" was the theme of the sermon last evening which held the undivided attention of the large audience for fully an hour.

"There is just one justification," said the speaker, "but there are as many pardons for the child of God as sins committed." Dr. Munhall set forth the causes that lead to backsliding and declared with much emphasis that no matter what may happen, the child of God is never justified in turning his back on his Loving Lord and returning to the beggarly elements of worldliness.

Dr. Munhall invited anyone who has difficulty with a doctrinal or theological question, to submit it to him in writing and he will do his best to answer the question according to the teaching of the Bible.

The meeting this evening will begin at 7:30 with the song service led by the large chorus choir of the church. Afternoon meetings at which Dr. Munhall will preach will be held this week on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday at 2:30 o'clock.

Chance To Win $25

What do you call the automobile driver who—cuts corners, swings in ahead of other traffic, hogs the middle of the road at all times, dashes through intersections scatters pedestrians, steps on the gas at railroad crossings—and otherwise acts as though he didn't have an ounce of sense, gumption or common decency?

What? Don't use that kind of language? But, suppose someone would offer to pay you $25 in cash for a word or phrase that would hold this foolhardy, crazy, reckless driver up to scorn and contumely—do you suppose you could coin such phrase and keep within the bounds of postal regulations against the use of strong language?

According to advices from the Hoosier State Auto Association headquarters at Indianapolis, that sort of a prize is now being offered to the person who can properly label driver.

"You remember the careless pedestrian has been called a 'jay walker' and the name fits so well that most of us quickly resent being dubbed jay walkers or jay anything else," says M. E. Noblet, manager of the Hoosier Auto Association. "Well, the idea is to hang a monicker on the reckless and carelessness and ruthlessness.

"We are authorized by the American Automobile Association to spread the word of this search for the right phrase. The A. A. A. offers a cash prize of $25 to the person turning in the most acceptable phrasing which will hold the reckless driver up to ridicule and carry the right sort of opprobrium. The contest is open to all and will run until May 15. The award will be made May 29, it is stated. All names or phrases should be submitted to the contest editor, American Automobile Association, 1108 Sixteenth street, N. W., Washington, D. C. We hope some Hoosier will be able to win this prize."

Mr. Noblet states the automobile association is getting good results from its safety campaign work throughout the state. "There are still thousands of careless persons, however," he adds. "We wish that every driver would make it a personal matter with himself from here on in to watch his step; be easy on the gas when traffic is heavy, watch out for pedestrians, watch out for the cross traffic at intersections and remember the undertaker and the coroner are waiting for you at every railroad crossing unless you stop, look and listen. Let each be a committee of one on this safety thing and Indiana will quickly take the lead in the matter of reduction of accidents."

Poor fences — and there are many of them — are mighty expensive. Good fences always pay.

Alliance of Women

London April 3.—An Alliance of the women of America and Great Britain to work "for realization of identical purposes, is urged by Viscountess Astor in a statement to the United Press.

Viscountess Astor, former Virginia girl and first woman member of parliament will try to create such a United movement of the women of the two countries on her visit to the U. S. next month.

London, April 3.—Inasmuch as the salvation of this war wrecked world rests upon Anglo-American effort, it is most imperative that the women of both countries perceive that their aims are parallel. Especially is this true when it comes to combatting the world-wide forces of reaction.

On my visit to the United States next month, I will try to persuade American women to take a constructive interest in world affairs. Through their efforts I hope the United States will abandon its theories of isolation and take a responsible share of the work of reconstructing the world, which is necessary if Europe is to be rebuilt.

I will explain to American women the English women's program regarding peace, labor, motherhood and kindred women's interests. I hope I can create a united Anglo-American women's movement for the realization of identified purposes."

BIG RESERVE IN GASOLINE SUPPLY

Stocks Were Increased During January by 119,000,000 Gallons With a Big Reserve

PREPARE FOR A COAL STRIKE

If Miners Walk Out For Any Length of Time, Gas and Fuel Oils Will be in Great Demand

Washington, April 3.—The millions of motorists concerned over the matter of the nation's gasoline supply may experience at least temporary relief in the announcement of the United States Bureau of Mines that the stocks of this vital liquid fuel were increased in the month of January by 119,000,000 gallons. On February 1, there was a reserve of 705,700,000 gallons, which is 130,000,000 gallons more than for the corresponding date in 1921. The figures are rapidly approaching the 800,000,000 gallon record mark made in May of last year. Production of gasoline in January amounted to 444,622,783 gallons; imports were 8,250,393 gallons; domestic consumption amounted to 282,717,168 gallons; exports to 49,856,310 gallons; and shipments to insular possessions, 675,659 gallons. Present stocks are equivalent to fifty days' supply based on the total daily average consumption for 1921. Operative refineries in the United States numbered 292 on February 1, with an indicated daily capacity of 1,753,940 barrels. Plants running continued to operate on an 80 per cent basis.

An increased demand for gas and fuel oils may be anticipated if the pending coal strike becomes a reality. Stocks of these oils on hand February 1 amounted to 1,319,481,359 gallons. Based on the daily average domestic consumption for 1921 these stocks are equivalent to sixty-eight days' supply. The production of these oils in January amounted to 858,110,877 gallons.

During January the nation's output of kerosene amounted to 172,917,141 gallons, an increase of 2,500,000 gallons over the preceding month. The fact that, despite this increase in production, stocks of kerosene decreased 13,500,000 gallons indicates enlivening in the movement of this product.

Stocks of lubricating oil on hand February 1 were 245,000,000 gallons, an increase of 28,465,000 gallons over the month previous.

FOR THE 'TEENS

It is not difficult to solve the problem of dress for little girls in these days of specializing. Resourceful designers devote their time to putting materials into styles that are appropriate for the little miss and pleasing to her as well. They craftily take their cues from the "grown-up" modes, modifying them to suit the younger generation, as in the case of the pretty cape-wrap shown here.

This wrap for girls in their "teens" is a cape to which sleeves have been gracefully added. It is made of lightweight velours and has a full ripple back with a decoration of stitching in two rows around it. It has a large collar which is ingeniously arranged to draw up around the neck by means of a heavy silk cord that is threaded through large eyelets worked in silk like that of the stitching. The cord and eyelets are very decorative.

Cutting In On Crime

Some months ago mail robberies came thick and fast. Bandits were making many rich hauls. The public was becoming demoralized.

Then the government put the United States marines to guarding the registered mails. Instead of getting money bandits got bullets in their carcasses. Some said "good morning" to the devil.

The marines had no future votes to consider, hence they shot and shot straight, and mail robberies ceased.

All of the rest of the banditry that is disgracing this country could be handled and checked as effectively if officials would consider only the conscientious discharge of their duty and get away from the prevailing custom of pandering to the votes of the criminal element.

Law and order can not expect to accomplish anything by sleeping while criminality works.

Science In Farming

Farmers are becoming more scientific in their methods of cultivating and managing their farms. You have only to watch the farm implement houses and watch their sales to become convinced of this fact.

A few years ago the farmer clung to the old methods, and literally worked himself to death for slight returns. His family shared the same fate.

Then he woke up, decided he was on the wrong track, righted himself, and started to forge ahead. He is still forging, outstripping many other industries in the progress he is making.

He has his ups and his downs, but the downs don't bother him much. He just steps over them and keeps on going.

Such men make a country great.

A Comparison

In all due courtesy we are inclined to liken a school teacher to a hen with a large brood of little chicks.

The hen is always mothering them protecting them from harm, and training them in the way they should go.

We all admire a good hen mother, and are loath to part with her.

A conscientious school teacher is much like the hen. She mothers her little flock, keeps a jealous eye upon each individual member, trains it in the way of truth, and honor, and intelligence, and education, and lays the foundation upon which its future success depends.

But we are not always as mindful of the welfare of the teacher as we are of the hen.

That's the difference.

We are now prepared to do your car washing in first class shape. Joe Clark.

Mrs. Wm. Cornell Is Now The Picture Of Health And Says She Never Felt Better In All Her Life

"My wife looks like a different person since taking Tanlac and her recovery has been the talk of the neighborhood," said Wm. Cornell, well-to-do farmer living on R. F. D. 1, Newbury, Ind.

"For some time I had been very much worried and alarmed about my wife as I could see that she was losing weight and strength every day. Nothing she ate seemed to agree with her and she complained a great deal of her kidneys.

"Tanlac evidently was just what she needed, for she is like a different person now. She looks the very picture of health and she tells me she never felt better in her life. Since seeing with my own eyes what this medicine can do I will go to the limit in recommending it."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Drug Co., and by leading druggists everywhere. Advertisement.

FRANCE MAY GET
OLYMPIC GAMES

All Warring Nations Have Come to Peaceful Terms and May Make Best Out of Poor Material

LOS ANGELES WAS CONTENDER

Americans Agree That the Pershing Stadium is Not the Place For The Olympic Games

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, April 3.—France is practically sure now to be the scene of the 1924 Olympic games. For several months during which two or three committees were battling among themselves it seemed that Paris would have to default and that Los Angeles could step in as the pinch hitter.

All the warring factions in Paris have come to peaceful terms according to late cable news and the Olympic committee will go ahead and try to "make the best out of poor material."

When the French "lobby" was working among the international delegates in Antwerp, the Parisians said "Let us have the games and we will show you how to put them on. And there is Paris, too, after the games.

The committee did not have ambitious designs, but it says now that it will have to take backwater when it comes to furnishing some of the promised trimmings because they are a couple of million francs shy of the amount they figured on and they have to do over the Pershing stadium, something they hadn't counted on.

All the Americans who were around Paris during the "interallied meets" agree with the French committee that the Pershing stadium is not the place for the Olympic games.

With funds supplied by the "Y" the American army engineers put the stadium up in something like ten days back in 1919 just to show how "Yanks" can work on a year's job.

Since then the stadium hasn't been touched and it is about "all in." The track was found short of its distance and the drainage was never good. To do it over, as it will have to be done, will cost more than a new stadium, like the one in Antwerp.

HOUSEWORK IS A BURDEN

Woman's lot is a weary one at best. But with backache and other distressing kidney ills life indeed becomes a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many Rushville women. Read what Mrs. W. A. Wylie 824 N. Arthur St. Rushville gave the following statement September 20, 1915: "I never had kidney trouble until quite recently but now I appreciate what a serious complaint it is and how severely one can suffer with it.

My trouble began with a clutching digging pain directly across the kidneys and over my hips. The pain was terrible and I had to be given pain-easing tablets by the doctor to relieve it. I was utterly unable to do my housework for a week and was in all kinds of misery. Others of my family had taken Doan's Kidney Pills with excellent result so I began using them. I got them and did not have to use a whole box before the pain across my back let up and soon disappeared."

On November 4 1920 Mrs. Wylie said: "I still have the same high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills. I haven't had to use them for the past few years as my cure has been a lasting one."

Indoor Track Records

Indoor intercollegiate champions are now wearing crowns for the first time as the indoor track and field sport for the college star made its debut only recently.

All of the records made are few marks for intercollegiate indoor competition, but the high jump record of 6 feet 4 1/2 inches made by Leroy Brown, Dartmouth, is a world's mark.

The list of new champions follows:

70 yard dash—J. A. Le Coney, Lafayette. Time, 0:07 3-10.
60 yard high hurdles—Harold Barron, Penn State. Time, 0:07 4-4.

One mile run—Marion Shields, Penn State. Time, 4:20.

One mile and seven furlongs, Freshman Medley Relay—Pennsylvania. Time, 7:45 1-5.

One mile relay—dead heat between Syracuse and Princeton. Time 3:22 4-5.

Two mile run—Norman P. Brown, Cornell. Time, 9:45 3-5.

Two mile relay—Pennsylvania (Meredith, McMullen, Holden, Brown). Time 7:55 1-5.

Running broad jump—S. T. Chow, Pennsylvania, 21 feet 10 1/2 inches.

Pole vault—J. Libby, Dartmouth, 12 feet.

Running high jump—Leroy Brown, Dartmouth, 6 feet 4 1/2 inches.

FLACK TO BE WITH CUBS

East St. Louis, April 1.—Max Flack, veteran outfielder, will not be seen in a Chicago Cub uniform when the national league pennant chase gets under way on April 12. This was assured when an X-ray specialist here stated that Flack was suffering from a fracture of the skull which, however, is not so serious as to require an operation. Flack was "beamed" by one of Percy Jones' fast balls while playing a practice game at the Cubs' training camp at Avalon, Calif., on March 14. He will remain at his home here until he completely recovers from the injury.

NATIONAL BUNTING

New York's Entry Should Repeat if Rookie Center Fielder Makes Good On Big Circuit

SHINNERS REPLACES BURNS

John McGraw Will Start Race With Combination He Believes To Be Better Than In 1921

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York's National League entry ought to win another pennant and perhaps another world's championship if—

A rookie center fielder makes good and if—

Veteran pitching arm holds.

John McGraw will start the 1922 pennant race with a team he considers better than the combination which won the world's series last fall.

Baseball men agree that the Giants have about the greatest infield ever gathered together, but they question the wisdom of tearing down a brilliant outfield to perfect an inner defense that served the purpose in a heated contest.

If the loss of George Burns, the brilliant center fielder and lead off man can be overcome by Ralph Shinn, the noted base burglar of the American Association, McGraw's judgment will be vindicated.

Be Yourself, But Be Your Best Self

For this isn't a go-as-you-please season by any means; the deceiving simplicity of the mode unfeelingly reveals every blemish of your figure you have not recognized and concealed with clever corsetry. Let us tell you something of the artfulness of the Type Corsetry that Gossard artistry created.

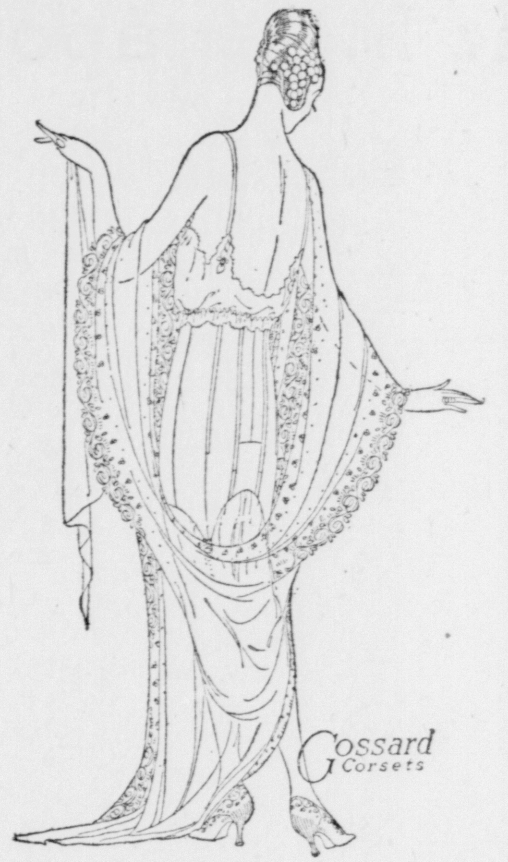

Let us show you how skillfully with a Goddard Front Lacing Corset we can coax your figure to the very most of which it is capable. Question your fitting in the truth-telling mirror. What you see will convince you that while we all can't be eighteen forever and ever the charm of graceful lines and slenderizing proportions may be ours if we buy the right corset.

"Nothing Ventured, Nothing Won"

There is no move in Auction more hazardous than the double.

If your doubles never fail, then you are not doubling often enough.

Often, with a doubtful hand, it is advisable to double to prevent your partner from continuing with a dangerous make. Again, with a doubtful hand, it is often advisable to double when there seems a chance that the adversaries will change to a declaration which your hand will surely defeat.

All game going contracts should be doubled, even with a doubtful hand.

When your adversaries are keen redoubters, be cautious, for often there is no avenue of escape, and you are cornered and left the bag to hold—in other words, the penalties to pay.

Never double with a certainty (a hand which you know will defeat the contract) unless you feel sure there is no avenue of escape for your adversaries.

With a choice of winning the game or doubling, take game, unless the double offers a prospect of at least 200 points. Keep in mind that the honor points probably are with the adversaries and will count against you.

If playing Rubbers, and you have the choice of winning rubber game or of doubling, take rubber, unless the double will yield the prospect of more than 300 points over and above the count for honors which the adversaries are almost certain to hold.

Another move which must be made with the utmost caution is the over-bidding of a partner when he has been doubled. It is rarely good bidding to take your partner out of his declaration when he has been doubled. If your partner has been doubled, and you have a strong hand, your strength will help to defeat the double. Should your hand be weak, the chances are that any change will only make matters worse. If the doubler be a reckless bidder, it is probable that the contract will pull through. Should the doubler be a sound bidder it is safe to assume that he is prepared to double the rescue or take-out, which would make matters just that much worse for the bidders.

It is the unusual which always occurs in Auction, however, and there are some hands with which a rescue is effective, and it is important that the bidder who is prone to interfere with a doubled partner should thoroughly understand their value, so that with any other holding he should not bid.

The only times when one should take out a partner who has been doubled is when one holds an unusual hand, which cannot help the partner's bid but which will greatly aid the take-out declaration.

Mr. Milton Work has given one of the best examples of this, which is as follows:

"Dealers bids one No-trump; Second Hand, two Hearts; Third Hand, pass; Fourth Hand, two Spades; Second Hand doubles; Third Hand holds (0 means cards lower than Ten)

Spades—0, 0
Hearts—0, 0, 0, 0

and would make a sound bid to take partner out with four Clubs. The hand is trickless in Diamonds, but of material assistance in Clubs, and the bidding would indicate that dealer has some strength in Clubs. In such case, although it increases the contract, the take-out is justified."

"If, however, the hand be Spades—none
the take-out would be unwise, as the hand will probably aid partner by its ability to ruff Spades."

To sum up the whole, do not change partner's bid unless it will materially advance the value of the make.

RUBBER INDUSTRY HAS 'COME BACK'

Annual Report of Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company Shows Production of 22,000 Tires Daily

RETURN TO PROSPERITY SEEN

To be no Further Wholesale Lay-offs For Akron Rubber Workers, Say Officials

(By United Press)

Akron, O., April 3.—The rubber industry—a barometer of the nation's prosperity—has "come back," officials of the biggest tire manufacturing companies declared today.

The war time boom city, the first to feel the depression pinch now indicates the country's return to prosperity days—business officials here, told the United Press.

The Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company considered on the financial rocks last summer, in an annual report just announced shows a production of 22,000 tires daily and a net earning of nearly $1,000,000 a month.

"Increased automobile production increased expenditures by automobile users and increased income to make possible that expenditure is indicated, E. G. Wilmer, president of Goodyear, declared.

"The present business has far surpassed that of a year ago." Views of other officials in the industry were:

"There will be no further wholesale lay-offs for Akron Rubber workers," W. F. O'Neil, general manager of General Tire and Rubber Company, said.

"Sales are increasing," Firestone Tire and Rubber Company reported. Miller Rubber Company and B. F. Goodrich, reported increased sales.

In addition, bank clearings for the last few weeks have shown consistent increases over the week before.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Love Expert" Here Today

Helpful hints to girls or boys anxious to ascertain whether one certain member of the opposite sex is responsive to their respective emotions are given in "The Love Expert," starring Constance Talmadge and which will be shown at the Princess Theatre today and Tuesday.

This production is the workmanship of John Emerson and Anita Loos' whose former stories and adaptations for Constance Talmadge since her affiliation with First National Exhibitors' Circuit have been greeted by the theatregoing public at large as classic gems of comedy production.

As Babs, a romantic boarding-school girl, Connie is probably in her most delightful characterization. Eschewing the cut-and-dried educational subjects she devotes herself to self-instruction in the science of Practical Love-Making, with the result that the Board of Regents stimulates another sale for the railroad companies—thus giving Babs a chance to try out her many formulas. The management maintains nothing like it has ever been shown or written before. The picture is from an original scenario by Emerson and Loos.

Rich in Humor and Pathos

"The Swamp" Sessue Hayakawa's latest R-C Pictures Corporation production, adapted from his own original story, is rich in humor as well as pathos and will furnish many a laugh for local theatregoers when it is screened at the Mystic theatre today and Tuesday.

Hayakawa takes a marked departure from his intensely dramatic roles of the past and plays the part of the simple Chinese boy, who earns his living selling vegetables, with a deft touch of comedy that will captivate all those who see it. And let it be stated here and now that the noted Japanese-American star is just as skillful a comedian as he is a tragedian.

"The Swamp" differs from anything Mr. Hayakawa has ever played and his role is so sympathetic, so tinged with sadness and so poignantly real that it is bound to be one of the outstanding characterizations of the year.

Realizing the importance of having the best possible cast to support him, Mr. Hayakawa sent a copy of the play to Miss Bessie Love and asked her if she would play the leading feminine role, notwithstanding the fact that Miss Love is a star in her own right and has her own production company.

WHAT WILL M'ADOO RUN FOR, QUESTION

Result of Announcement That McAdoo Would Give Up New York And Move To California

WANTS SENATE SEAT RELIEF

Impossible To Predict Whether Johnson Will Be Opposed In Republican Primaries

(By United Press)
San Francisco, April 3.—Will Wm. G. McAdoo go to the 1924 Democratic National Convention with the solid votes of the Pacific Coast States backing him for President? These and a lot of other political questions have resulted from McAdoo's announcement that he would give up his New York voting residence and move to Southern California.

The college professors and students of politics are asking other questions. McAdoo moves to California, W. J. Bryan takes his residence to Florida and make it known that he would look with "lenient eye on any action toward forcing the United States Senatorship on him.

Many political observers profess to believe that the United States is coming around to English system of elections, whereby the candidate for political office picks out whatever district in England he likes, and offers himself for election there. Only in the United States such politician would have to gain a legal residence.

In the 1920 Democratic Convention many Democrats now believe McAdoo might have won had his own state been solidly behind him. It is a kind of fetish in conventions that if the delegates in a man's own state are not solid for him, he is a good man to leave alone.

While McAdoo is commonly reputed to be still nursing his presidential ambitions, it is nevertheless pointed out that a seat in the senate might be his second choice. If so, McAdoo's ambitions are dated several years away—1926 to be exact. He has not established residence in time to enter the 1922 lists against Senator Hiram Johnson. In 1926 Senator Samuel Shortridge will come up for reelection. And meantime there is the 1924 presidential campaign to be waged.

That McAdoo will greatly strengthen the Democratic forces in the state is not to be denied. In Southern California particularly a strong Democratic leader has been lacking for some time. Southern California is somewhat of a political enigma. It is nominally Republican, but very much of the independent of Progressive-Republican brand.

It is impossible to predict at present whether or not Johnson will be opposed in the Republican primaries but it is doubtful that any one strong enough to give him a race would risk his political chances in such a contest.

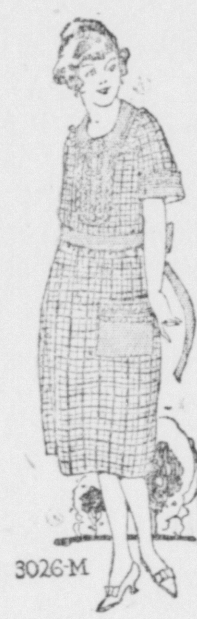

How he will fare in the November elections against a strong Democratic opponent is another matter. The Democrats would like to see Johnson-anti-Johnson split in the Republican party, but do not believe they can cause this.

Who will oppose Johnson is a matter of speculation. The most likely prospect, it is believed, is former Senator James D. Phelan, who was defeated by Shortridge in the 1920 landslide. Phelan ran far ahead of his ticket and many Democrats give him more than a chance. Phelan is an extremely independent Democrat. He was a reservationist on the League of nations vote. He is at present in Japan, making a study of conditions there, and has sent back no word concerning his attitude. On the other hand many Democrats are urging him as a candidate for governor against William D. Stephens, incumbent.

The other most likely candidate is Gavin McNab, a veteran Democratic leader of the state, who has recently been much in the public eye as counsel for Mary Pickford and Roscoe Arbuckle. McNab was offered a position on the shipping board during the Wilson administration, but refused it. Many of McNab's friends doubt that he would be willing to enter a campaign as strenuous as that which a contest with Johnson would entail. McNab has issued a statement that he won't run, but his advocates say other men have changed their minds.

Seeks Passage Of Bill To Prevent Washington Women From Smoking

Representative Johnson of Mississippi, Would Attempt to Make Nation-Wide Campaign Against Women Cigarette Smokers by Beginning With National Capital. Alice Robertson, Woman Representative and Several Others Will Oppose Any Plan to Hinder "A Woman's Privilege."

By LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, April 3.—A national wide campaign to divorce the cigarette from feminine lips is not far distant, Representative Johnson of Mississippi, author of a bill to prevent women from smoking in the national capital, believes.

Passage of his bill, Johnson said, would cause states and cities to take similar action.

His views caused Miss Alice Robertson, Oklahoma, the only woman member of congress, to rise in defense of woman's right to smoke.

"Let women smoke if they want to," Miss Robertson said. "It's just a matter of taste and they have just as much right to smoke as the men."

"Cigarette smoking by women is one of the most degrading habits ever started," Johnson said. "It's as bad as liquor and may be worse."

"The argue that smoking is as bad as drinking liquor," Miss Robertson said. "But they have yet to show me a case where a man smokes two or three cigarettes and goes home on a jag and murders two or three of his family."

"I'm not of those optimists who doesn't believe the country is going to the moral bow wows just because a few women smoke cigarettes. There will not be enough women smokers to really hurt the country."

"I don't know whether toy lap dogs of the idle rich approve of the cigarette smoke or not. But I know that real babies don't like it."

"I don't believe in prohibiting anything unless it is a menace and I don't consider women smoking a menace."

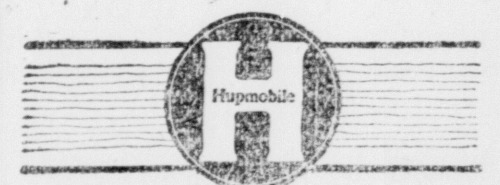

Representative Volstead, Minn., father of the prohibition law, indicated he would not support a measure to make women cut out smoking.

"Hell, let 'em smoke," said Uncle Joe Cannon. "My mother used to smoke. Nearly all the women did down in North Carolina where she was born and reared."

Hupmobile

Hupmobile performance is brilliant. Its economy, we believe, is unequalled by any other motor car. Its re-sale price is notably high.
